More than 200 attend 4-H 'Share the Fun' show

More than 200 persons attended the 1983 4-H Share-the-Fun Show last Thursday evening at the Appomattox County High School Auditorium. Forty-four 4-H'ers participated in the 27 acts that made up the fun-filled variety show. Featured in the show were acts chosen from more than 70 acts presented by 4-H members in November.

Following the final act, special awards were presented by Mr. Ronald Spiggle, Chairman of the Board of the Appomattox Branch of American Federal Savings and Loan Association. American Federal has provided awards for Appomattox 4-H Share-the-Fun for the past three years. The performers in Share-the-Fun were judged in three age groups: Juniors (9-11); Intermediates (12-13); and Seniors (14 and over); and in five talent categories including: Vocal, Instrumental, Dramatic, Dance and General.

Top winners in the Junior age group were as follows: Dance: Shannon Williams who danced to "Maniac;" General: Mary Helen McLaughlin who played and sang "Seeds Go Traveling"; Vocal: Shana Harvey who sang "Over the Rainbow"; Dramatic: Robin Fuller and Kelly Hamlett with an act called "Mother Moose Rhymes"; and Instrumental: Barbara Wynn who played "Big Bass Singer" on the piano.

Additional Junior age performers and the titles of their acts were as follows: Joyce Bailey and Catherine Lawson, "Little Brown Jug"; Mary Beth Hix and Ginny Sweet, "You Can't Get a Man with a Gun"; Jennifer Carnefix, Kerri McFadden, Stacy Staten, "The Little Radios"; Beth Scott and Tara Johnson, "The Two Hobos"; Amena Johnson, "November"; Jenniger Notestein, "Polka Dot Bikini"; and Roxanne Williams, "Razzle Dazzle."

The top Intermediate Age performers were as follows: Dramatic: Amy Morris and Sally Inge who performed a skit called "Slowly I Turned;" Instrumental: Robert Coleman who played "Chariots of Fire" on the piano; Dance: Teresa Burger, Terri Hamlett, Dawn Hancock and Rhonda Ranson who performed a dance act called "Strings"; and General: Susan Watkins who played and sang a medley of contemporary TV Tunes.

Other Intermediate age performers and their acts were as follows: Beth Marston, "Alexander-Who Used to Be Rich Last Sunday"; Rosa Lee Wheeler, "Yield Not to Temptation"; Tony Watkins and Sharon Watkins, "Let Me Tickle Your Fancy"; Christie Campbell, Dana Campbell and Kim Krantz, "Macho Duck".

To winners in the Senior Age Division were as follows: DANCE: Anne Hancock who danced to "Imagination"; VOCAL: Alice Jackson who sang "Shackled by the Heavy Burden"; GENERAL: Jennifer Coleman and Lisa Williamson who performed "You've Got a Friend". Other senior performers included: Alfreda Wheeler and Anne Jones, "When Was Jesus Born"; Tony Bailey, "The Lord Will Stand By Me"; Annette Turner and Ada Hunter, "Just Be Good to Me."

The 4-H Share-the-Fun program is held to provide young people with the opportunity to develop their talents and self confidence, while learning to enjoy performing. More than 125 young people were involved in Share-the-Fun programs this year.

Special thanks are extended to the 4-H Achievers Community Club for developing the theme of "Ho Ho Ho-4-H'ers on the Go" and the decorations for the 1983 Share-the-Fun program. Members helping were: Susan Carnefix, Sheri Williams, Dawn Hancock, Karen Gilliam and Kim Fuller.

The Teen Leaders 4-H Club assisted with emceeing (Breti Marston, Roger Guill and Martha Haley) the show; Backstage work with Props (Ernest Humbles, Bob Poole, Paul Humbles, Rhonda Morgan, Curtis Moore, Kenneth McClenny); Microphone Work (James Cash, Marvin Hamlett); Hosting the Show (JoAnna Layne, Wendy Harris, Amy Covington); Coordinating the Acts (Nancy Cole) and Photographer (Howard Anderson).

Appreciation is also extended to the ACHS Drama Club for use of a sound system and to Cecil Jacobs and Roy Brennen for their coordination of the lighting and sound.

Annual awards banquet slated for Jan. 23

By FRANK H. SWEET
Extension Agent

The Annual 4-H Awards Banquet is scheduled for Monday evening, Jan. 23, at 6:30 p.m. in the cafeteria of Appomattox County High School. The program is held each year to recognize 4-H members who have done outstanding work in projects and activities. Invitations will be sent to more than 60 Appomattox 4-H'ers in early January.

As our Senior 4-H members (14-19) begin working on their achievement records for the March 1 deadline, there are some suggestions we can make to younger members about keeping accurate 4-H records. One suggestion is that 4-H project work is most important. Keeping accurate records is also important. We've suggested that young people utilize a calendar at home and record each 4-H activity or event they participate in during the year. Participaiton is the real key to building a strong 4-H record. Parents can be a big help toward effective 4-H records by taking pictures of their young person working on projects, participation in events or giving presentations. 4-H achievement records provide the opportunity for members to attend National 4-H Congress and the chance to win National 4-H scholarships.

The recent fund-raising effort for the Holiday Lake 4-H Center was a big success. Winners of the three big prizes were Richard Morse of Mecklenburg, 1984 Chevette; Vivian Sprague of Cumberland, Microwave oven; and Gilbert Mays of Appomattox, 10 Speed Bicycle. Thanks to all folks who participated in the fund-raising program.

Strawberry orders are beginning to come in to the Extension Office. 4-H families may choose from four varieties of strawberries (Earliglow, Scott, Surecrop and Delite). Orders will be combined and plants ordered in early February. Forms are available from the Appomattox Extension Office.

The Lucky Clover 4-H Community Club of Pamplin and the 4-H Achievers Club of Appomattox presented families in their respective communities with special boxes of Christmas goodies. The Teen Leader 4-H Club took up a donation for the Appomattox Rescue Squad during their covered dish Christmas supper. Community involvement is an important part of being in a community 4-H club.
